PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

2022 Summer Campus Program for Grades 2-12 Teachers of Mathematics
Two Weeks: June 13-16 and 20-23 (9 a.m. – 3 p.m.) plus follow-up sessions during the RUSMP Fall 2022 and Spring 2023 Networking Conferences

The 2022 Summer Campus Program for Grades 2-12 Teachers of Mathematics will take place online due to the continued uncertainty of COVID-19. These online sessions will take place 9 a.m. - noon each day with individual/group work noon - 3 p.m. for separate classes: elementary (grades 2-5), middle school (grades 6-Algebra I), and high school (Geometry-Calculus). The content focus this summer is “Integrating Geometry into the Algebraic and Number Strands.”

The three concurrent grade-level classes will be facilitated by RUSMP Master Teachers and Rice University Faculty.

Each teacher will receive 48 CPE hours and course materials for participating during the summer. In addition, Houston ISD will award 6 hours of GT credit. Additional CPE hours will be awarded for attendance during the RUSMP Fall 2022 and Spring 2023 Networking Conferences.
