Rice University School Mathematics Project's Summer Math Camps
at Saint Thomas' Episcopal School for 1st-grade through 6th-grade Students in the Fall, 2021

The Rice University School Mathematics Project (RUSMP) is offering one-week summer math camps at Saint Thomas' Episcopal School for students who will be entering 1st- through 6th-grade in the Fall of 2021.

These camps (9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.) will blend content-focused learning and enriching activities to engage students in fun, hands-on mathematics investigations and games with connections to science, technology, engineering. Students will enhance their love of learning and deepen their math understanding and will leave energized and enthusiastic about mathematics and the other STEAM disciplines for Fall of 2021.

We are cautiously moving forward with our face-to-face summer camps with the understanding that they might change to virtual if necessary due to COVID-19.
